

RICE HUMANITIES
Medical Humanities

Fall 2023 Medical Humanities Practica MDHM 402 and 430 are accepting applications until April 10.

MDHM 402 is the first semester of a year-long practicum in which students join research teams investigating humanities questions in the Texas Medical Center. For 2023-24 projects and to apply, visit <https://medicalhumanities.rice.edu/hhass-health-practicum>.

MDHM 430 is a one-semester practicum in which students initiate mentored research projects of benefit to a health-based organization. For Fall 2023 projects and to apply, visit <https://medicalhumanities.rice.edu/one-semester-practicum>.

Learn more about current students' practicum research in the Practicum Showcase Saturday, April 8 2-3 PM in Kraft Hall 105.

The Showcase takes place during the Rice Medical Humanities Club Symposium and Hackathon on "Speculative Futures of Healthcare: Toward Healing and Justice." Drop by the showcase, but please register for the symposium here: <https://forms.gle/8UpTM2n1N8hQfiH68>.
